

Preservation Month Events in Indiana

On-going Events

Evansville: “Art with a Historic Perspective” The Arts Council of SW Indiana, in partnership with the Chamber of Commerce of Southwest Indiana, have organized a very special art show featuring four area artists whose work reflects the beauty and grace of all things old. The show features art by Billy Hedel of Evansville, Bill Pickle of Huntingburg, and Sherry Wilkerson from Henderson, KY. Photographs by Fred Reaves, also of Henderson. Old Post Office, 100 NW 2nd St. Contact the Council at 812/ 422-2111 for information. Open May-July. Free

Fort Wayne: From May 1-May 31 the History Center at 302 E. Berry St. is exhibits highlighting the history of the community from the Ice Age through the Space Age. Also See “Beyond the 3 R’s: Fort Wayne Community Schools Celebrates 150 years,” a special exhibit on the history of public education Fort Wayne. Call 260/ 426-2882 for details. $5/adult, $3/senior or student, children under 5 are free

Indianapolis: Historic Preservation Month Photo Contest Exhibit. Visit the South Atrium of the Indiana Statehouse to view the entries in the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology’s 3rd annual photo contest. Contact Amy Walker at 317/ 232-1647 for information. Exhibit up April 30-May 11. Free

Indianapolis: The Indiana Historical Bureau, in coordination with the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology, is having a display for Historic Preservation Month showing a variety of images of historic resources around the state. The Bureau is located within the Indiana State Library, 140 N. Senate. Exhibit up April 27-June 1. Free

French Lick: Historic Preservation Month Photo Contest Exhibit. If you miss the 2007 exhibit at the Indiana Statehouse in the beginning of May, visit the French Lick Resort Casino between May 14-June 17 to see the entries in the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology’s 3rd annual photo contest. Free.

May 1

Roann: Come to learn about the formation of Roann's new preservation organization, Roann's Community Heritage. The presentation at the Roann Paw Paw Twp. Public Library, 240 Chippewa Street will inform participants about the group's goals and planned events as well as the National Register district project. Refreshments will be served. Contact Cathy Wright at Historic Landmarks Foundation at 260/ 563-4534 for information. 7pm. Free

May 2

Ellettsville: The Ellettsville Branch of the Monroe County Public Library is hosting a talk by architectural historian Paul Diebold. He will be discussing the National Register of Historic Places and what listing does and doesn’t mean. Talk will begin at 7pm at the library (600 W. Temperance St). Contact the library at (812) 876-1272 for more information. Free

Indianapolis: Indianapolis City Market. Come join staff members from the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology at the 1886 market building. See the recent renovations to the building and learn about historic preservation from the State Historic Preservation Office. Contact Amy Walker at 317/ 232-1647 for information. 10am-1:30pm. Free

May 3

Lebanon: The Lebanon Public Library's Heritage Center (104 E. Washington) is offering a Photograph Copy Clinic on each Thursday in May. The Heritage Center desires to copy photographs or historical documents of Lebanon or any place in Boone County, Indiana for the local history archives. The library is particularly interested in businesses, churches, parks and schools. Documents will be scanned while you wait. Contact the Library at 765-482-3460 ext 261 for more information. 9am-2pm. Free

May 4

Fort Wayne: The Historic Swinney Homestead (1424 W. Jefferson) is hosting a herb sales and open house by Settlers, Inc. Call 260/ 637-8622 for details. 10am-4pm. Free

Fort Wayne: ARCH Downtown Walking Tour—Starting at the Visitor's Center (1021 S Calhoun) the tour lasts 90 minutes and travels approximately 1 miles through some of Fort Wayne's "must-see" architectural gems. Call ARCH at 260/ 426-5117 for information. 1pm. $5/adult, Children under 18 are free.

Warsaw: The Kosciusko County Historical Society is hosting the dedication of Chinwoth Bridge/Open Lake City Greenway at 11am. The National Register restored 1897 Chinworth Bridge located over the Tippecanoe River 3 1/2 mile west of Warsaw on Old US 30. Site is the terminus for the Lake City Greenway a bike/hike trail. Governor Mitch Daniels will attend. Contact Neal Carlson at 574-267-4458 for more information. Free

May 5

Fort Wayne: The Historic Swinney Homestead (1424 W. Jefferson) is hosting a herb sales and open house by Settlers, Inc. Call 260/ 637-8622 for details. 8am-12pm. Free

Fort Wayne: South Side Farmers Market (3300 Warsaw St). Visit this 1926 Farmers market with wood-stoves and old-fashioned charm. The market is listed as a Local Historic District. Enjoy early season produce, annual flowers, perennials, and more. Contact Angie Quinn at 260/ 426-5117 for information. 7am-1pm. Free

Fort Wayne: Chief Richardville House Tour (5705 Bluffton Road) Interpretive tour of an 1827 Treaty House built for the civil chief of the Miami Nation; the oldest house in Northeast Indiana. Also enjoy Painted Turtle Singers, traditional Miami Indiana drumming, singing, and dancing. Call 260/ 426-2882 ext. 312 for information. 1pm-4pm. $7/adults, $5/children, students, seniors, and ACFWHS members

Fort Wayne: Camp Scott walking tour (3615 Oxford St). Educational and interpretive walk of this significant World War II site. Call 260/ 426-2882 ext. 310 for details. 2pm-3pm. Free

Kokomo: The Howard County Preservation Committee, with assistance from the Kokomo Downtown Association, will present tours of historic downtown Kokomo. Included in the tour will be interiors of several downtown buildings and discussion of the exterior architecture along the way. Two downtown architectural tours are planned, each beginning from the committee's booth at the Artrain site. Greentown will be the site of a similar tour starting at 4 p.m. focusing on buildings outlined in Greentown's new cultural trail. Contact Cathy Wright at Historic Landmarks Foundation at 260/ 563-4534. Tours of Kokomo start at 11am and 2pm. Tour of Greentown starts at 4pm. Free

Plainfield: Spring History Tour of Plainfield Homes sponsored by the Friends of the Plainfield-Guilford Township Public Library. Visit 6 historic buildings around Plainfield and support local history programming at the library. Contact Laura Day at 317-839-6602, ext. 114 or lday@plainfield.lib.in.us. Ticket holders must be age 9 or older. 1pm-5pm. Tickets are $10 in advance (until May 4 at the library) and $12 the day of the tour (at the library or house sites).

South Bend: The Historic Preservation Commission of South Bend & St. Joseph County is presenting the Southhold Awards to celebrate exemplary local preservation works. Join this year's honorees and other preservationists to celebrate their efforts, enjoy a lovely breakfast, and hear the keynote presented by Mr. Bill Latoza of Chicago. Mr. Latoza will be speaking on "Saving Our Neighborhood Schools". The breakfast will begin at the Palais Royale at 8am. Contact Catharine Hostetler at 574/ 235-9798 for tickets. Reservations required. $15

May 6

Fort Wayne: Allen County Courthouse Tour. See why the courthouse truly is a National Historic Landmark. Contact 260/ 449-4246 for details. 715 S. Calhoun St. 1pm-4pm. Free

Fort Wayne: Embassy Theatre (125 W. Jefferson Blvd) Pops on Pipes-Grande Page Organ Concert: Buddy Nolan Annual Tribute with Mark Herman. Call the Embassy Box Office at 260/ 424-5665 or visit www.fwembassytheatre.org. 2pm. $14/adults, $7/students

May 9

Indianapolis: Indianapolis City Market. Come join staff members from the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology at the 1886 market building. See the recent renovations to the building and learn about historic preservation from the State Historic Preservation Office. Contact Amy Walker at 317/ 232-1647 for information. 10am-1:30pm. Free

May 10

Fort Wayne: Historic Swinney Homestead (1424 W. Jefferson)—Settlers, Inc. presents "Toys and Games from Early America," a "hands-on" history program. Call 260/ 483-7793 for details. Reservations required by May 3. 9am. $12/member, $15/non-member

Lebanon: The Lebanon Public Library's Heritage Center (104 E. Washington) is offering a Photograph Copy Clinic on each Thursday in May. The Heritage Center desires to copy photographs or historical documents of Lebanon or any place in Boone County, Indiana for the local history archives. The library is particularly interested in businesses, churches, parks and schools. Documents will be scanned while you wait. Contact the Library at 765-482-3460 ext 261 for more information. 9am-2pm. Free

New Albany: "Preservation Pays: Reusing Historic Buildings" at Cornerstone Evangelical Methodist Church, 418 East Spring Street. Designed for developers, investors, real estate professionals, elected officials, architects, engineers, and individuals who care about the redevelopment of the city. Holly Wiedemann, Architect and

President, AU Associates, Lexington, Kentucky, tells how her preservation projects have directly influenced local economies of cities -- including Louisville, Irvine, and Midway, Kentucky -- through adaptive reuse, renovation, and development of affordable housing from school buildings and a hospital. She brings the statistics and the stories. Call 812/ 284-4534 for more information. 6pm-8pm. Reservations required. Free

Terre Haute: Historic Landmarks Foundation and Terre Haute Landmarks will be hosting Jim Kienle, the winner of the Indiana Chapter of the American Institute of Architects' Juliet Peddle Award, for a discussion of his design philosophy and how it relates to historic preservation. Juliet Peddle, a Terre Haute architect, was the first licensed female architect in Indiana. The Juliet Peddle Award is given to an individual that demonstrates a pioneering spirit through achievement as an architect. Talk will be at the Crawford School, 705 S. 5th Street. Contact Jeremy Risen at 812/ 232-4534 for information. 7pm-9pm. Free

May 11

Fort Wayne: Salomon Farm Park (817 W. Dupont Rd)—Fiber Arts Celebration set on a historic farmstead. A sheep shearing, wool dying, yarn spinning event. Call 260/ 427-6000 for details. 10am-5pm. Free

Goshen: The Indiana Chapter of the Lincoln Highway Association will hold its spring meeting on Friday, May 11, 2007 in Goshen, Indiana. The newly restored Hattle Hotel, which welcomed guests traveling the Lincoln Highway in 1913, will be open for viewing from 5:30-6:30. Guests will gather for dinner and the annual meeting at 6:45. Contact Jan Shupert-Arick for details at 260/ 471-5670. Send dinner reservations to: Indiana Lincoln Highway Association, 2924 Devon Drive, Fort Wayne, IN 46815 by May 8th. Make checks payable to: Bill Arick. 5:30pm-8:30pm. $12/person

May 12

Evansville: Preservation Alliance of Evansville & the City of Evansville will conduct a tour of Bosse Field-Garvin Park-Gresham Home. The focus will be on three different resources: Bosse Field, considered by some to be the oldest baseball park in the country; Garvin park, Evansville's only National Register park, and the Gresham house, built to house the mother of Evansville's WWI hero, James Bethel Gresham. Contact the Department of Metropolitan Development at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. 2pm-4pm. Free

Fort Wayne: Preservation Grassroots Roundup. Come learn about preservation efforts in the northeastern part of the state from a variety of preservation professionals, local organizations, and preservation friends. This informal event focuses on sharing problems, ideas, and solutions. Lunch and refreshments will be provided. Contact Steve Kennedy at 317/ 232-6981 or Malia Savarino at 317/ 232-1648 for details. 9am-4pm. Must RSVP by May 4. Free

Fort Wayne: South Side Farmers Market (3300 Warsaw St). Visit this 1926 Farmers market with wood-stoves and old-fashioned charm. The market is listed as a Local Historic District. Enjoy early season produce, annual flowers, perennials, and more. Contact Angie Quinn at 260/ 426-5117 for information. 7am-1pm. Free

Fort Wayne: Salomon Farm Park (817 W. Dupont Rd)—Fiber Arts Celebration set on a historic farmstead. A sheep shearing, wool dying, yarn spinning event. Call 260/ 427-6000 for details. 10am-5pm. Free

Fort Wayne: Young Eagle's Rally Day—Free flights for kids (weather permitting) and historic photos and exhibits at historic Smith Field (426 W. Ludwig Rd). Call 260/ 369-3222 or visit www.eaa2.org for details. Registration is from 10am-2pm with flights for kids from 10am-2pm. Free to kids

Indianapolis: The Battle of Fall Creek. A Civil War Reenactment of a skirmish between Union and Confederate forces on Saturday, May 12th and Sunday, May 13th, with live music from the 42nd Regimental String Band on Saturday evening, May 12th. Mock battles Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning. Artillery demonstrations and talks both days. Fort Harrison State Park. Contact Jeff Cummings for more information (317/ 591-0122) 10am-4pm. $5/person

Logansport: Historic Preservation Day from 10am-3pm. There will be a several events occurring throughout the city including: a series of home tours at 136 Eel River Ave, 210 Eel River Ave, and 218 Eel River Ave.; a historic photo display and fire-fighting artifacts at the Logansport Fire Department; a tour of the historic 9th Street Cemetery; a car exhibit; guest speakers; and a barbershop quartet and the Salvation Army Band. Contact Deputy Mayor Linda Klinck at 574/753-2945 for more information. Free

New Albany: "Workshops in Preservation" at The White House Centre, 222 Pearl Street. Workshops in Preservation: Assess your historic home; Get what you want from professional contractors; Use financial resources to your advantage. Lessons from a licensed home inspector specializing in inspections of older homes, a restoration project manager from the Kentucky Heritage Council, and a panel representing Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana, Urban Enterprise Zone Association and Economic Development, New Albany. Contact Historic Landmarks Foundation at 812/ 284-4534. 9am-3pm. Reservations required. Free

May 13

Evansville: Preservation Alliance of Evansville & the City of Evansville will conduct a tour of Oak Hill Cemetery-From an Artist's Eye. The tour departs from the veteran's memorial to the right of the main entrance. The walk covers the old sections of the cemetery. Artist Billy Hedel and studio manager Tom Loesch, veteran tour guides of the famous New Orleans cemetery tours, will give new insights on the artistic aspects of Evansville's National Register cemetery. Contact the Department of Metropolitan Development at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. 2pm-3:30pm. Free

Indianapolis: The Battle of Fall Creek. A Civil War Reenactment of a skirmish between Union and Confederate forces on Saturday, May 12th and Sunday, May 13th, with live music from the 42nd Regimental String Band on Saturday evening, May 12th. Mock battles Saturday afternoon and Sunday morning. Artillery demonstrations and talks both days. Fort Harrison State Park. Contact Jeff Cummings for more information (317/ 591-0122) 10am-4pm. $5/person

May 14

Fort Wayne: Celebration of the new Columbia Avenue Local Historic District and dedication of historic markers at the west end of Columbia Avenue. Call 260/ 427-1127 for details. 3pm. Free

May 15

Evansville: Preservation Alliance of Evansville & the City of Evansville will conduct a tour of Lombard Avenue. The tour leaves from the intersection of Lombard and Bellemeade Avenues. This neighborhood is noted for early 20th century Colonial Revivals, Bungalows, and Tudor Revival residences. Contact the Department of Metropolitan Development at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. 6:30pm-8pm. Free

Indianapolis: Come to the Morris-Butler House for “How to Research Your Historic Home Workshop.” Suzanne Stanis, Director of Educational Heritage for Historic Landmarks Foundation, has written over fifteen National Register nominations and will offer tips for research. Contact the Morris Butler House, 1204 N. Park, at 317/ 636-5409 for tickets. 6pm-7pm. Reservations required. $10/person.

New Albany: “Pizza and Preservation: Research Your Historic Home” at the New Albany – Floyd County Public Library, 180 West Spring Street. Presenters: David Barksdale, Floyd County Historian; Linda Berger, County Recorder.

Meet in the Strassweg Auditorium for pizza and introduction to how to date, research, and identify your home’s past. From there, you go to the Indiana Room to research your own property. Designed for homeowners of historic property and anyone interested in history of property in their communities or neighborhoods, you learn the most efficient steps through the research process and the best resources for finding what you want to know. 6:15pm-8:30pm. Reservations required. Free

Roann: “How to Research Historic Buildings” Learn how to research your historic home with this presentation by Cathy Wright, North Central Field Representative of Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana. Presentation will be at the Roann Paw Paw Twp. Public Library, 240 Chippewa Street . Refreshments will be served. 7pm. Free

May 16

Evansville: In recognition of Evansville Preservation Week, there will be a “Meet the Artists” reception in the Chamber office of the Old Post Office. Dennis M. Au will kick off the occasion with a brief overview of the 1875 Old Post Office building. The reception is open to the public, but reservations are recommended. Call the Arts Council off during business hours for information. 812/ 422-2111. Free

Indianapolis: Indianapolis City Market. Come join staff members from the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology at the 1886 market building. See the recent renovations to the building and learn about historic preservation from the State Historic Preservation Office. Contact Amy Walker at 317/ 232-1647 for information. 10am-1:30pm. Free

Indianapolis: Downtown Indianapolis Sculpture Walking Tour. Local historian Glory-June Greiff will lead a 1 hour tour (approximately 1 ½ miles) highlighting various the Indiana War Memorial, University Park, Monument Circle and more. Meet at 5:30 at the north side of the Indiana War Memorial (Michigan St.) Contact Mindi Woolman at Historic Landmarks Foundation at 317/ 639-4534 for more information. Free

May 17

Evansville: Preservation Alliance of Evansville & the City of Evansville will conduct a tour of Riverside South. The tour covers S.E. 1st and 2nd Streets between Chandler and Mulberry. Walk begins at the corner of S.E. 2nd and Mulberry Streets. This is the old neighborhood of Mayor Bosse and the Fendrich family. Contact the Department of Metropolitan Development at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. 6:30pm-8pm. Free

Fort Wayne: Downtown Art Crawl. An evening showcasing the historic downtown and a variety of Fort Wayne arts, culture, and entertainment in the area of Calhoun and Wayne Streets. Call 260/420-3266 or visit www.downtownFORTWAYNE.com. 6pm-10pm. Free admission, food/drinks vary

Fremont: Living at the Lake: Cottage Style. Michael Galbraith of ARCH, Inc will discuss “going to the lake,” at the Fremont Public Library (1004 W. Toledo). He will highlight the outstanding historic lake cottages of Steuben County. Call 260/ 426-5117 for details. 7pm. Free

Lebanon: The Lebanon Public Library's Heritage Center (104 E. Washington) is offering a Photograph Copy Clinic on each Thursday in May. The Heritage Center desires to copy photographs or historical documents of Lebanon or any place in Boone County, Indiana for the local history archives. The library is particularly interested in businesses, churches, parks and schools. Documents will be scanned while you wait. Contact the Library at 765-482-3460 ext 261 for more information. 9am-2pm. Free

May 19

Evansville: Preservation Alliance of Evansville and the City of Evansville proudly present the 32nd annual Historic Preservation Awards Luncheon in observance of National Historic Preservation Month. Thomas Barnett, Director of Planning for Paducah, KY will speak on “Arts as an Economic Development Engine in a Historic Neighborhood” and will begin at 1:15. The awards luncheon will be at the Meetinghouse (100 Washington Ave.) and the cost of the luncheon is $16.50/person. Reservations required. Contact the Department of Metropolitan Development at 812/ 436-7823. Mr. Barnett's lecture is free and open to the public.

Evansville: Preservation Alliance of Evansville and the City of Evansville are hosting a tour of the Heart of the Evansville Arts District. Studios featured will include: Billy Hedel, Art Colony Gallery, and artworks. In addition to the studios, the architecture of portions of the Washington Avenue Historic District will be highlighted. Tour leaves from Patchwork Central, 100 Washington Ave. Contact the Department of Metropolitan Development at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. 3pm-5pm. Free

Fort Wayne: South Side Farmers Market (3300 Warsaw St). Visit this 1926 Farmers market with wood-stoves and old-fashioned charm. The market is listed as a Local Historic District. Enjoy early season produce, annual flowers, perennials, and more. Contact Angie Quinn at 260/ 426-5117 for information. 7am-1pm. Free

Fort Wayne: Time Line Event at Old Fort Wayne (Spy Run Ave). A series of Revolutionary War, War of 1812, and Civil War reenactments. For details call 260/ 460-4763 or visit www.oldfortwayne.org. 11am-8pm. Free admission, food/drinks vary

Indianapolis: Take an architectural trip through Indianapolis history during “This Old House: Architectural Styles of the Historic Old Northside” celebrating National Historic Preservation Month. Gather at the Morris-Butler House Museum for a brief presentation by Director of Heritage Education & Information, Suzanne Stanis, on the history and hallmarks of Indiana's architectural heritage. Then head outside to see real-life examples on a walking tour highlighting the Old Northside, one of the city's premiere historic neighborhoods. Contact the Morris Butler House, 1204 N. Park, at 317/ 636-5409 for tickets. 9:30am-12pm. Reservations required. Cost is $20 ($17 for Members).

New Albany: "Lofty Ideas: Walking Tour of Downtown Living Spaces" a tour of fantastic spaces with opportunities for their development into living quarters. This tour designed for investors, real estate professionals, developers, remodelers, architects, city officials, and anyone with an interest in viewing the second and third floors of New Albany's downtown buildings. On hand for serious discussion of how to proceed with acquisition and renovation: a commercial broker, a Realtor and Floyd County Historian. Contact Historic Landmarks Foundation for locations 812/284-4534. 11am-12:30pm. Free

Seymour: The Jackson County Public Library is hosting a walking tour of the Seymour Historic Commercial District. Seymour historians Kevin Greene and John Mohr will lead the walk and tell about the great buildings still standing in downtown Seymour, including the Farmers Club, the Old Federal Building, the Old Telephone Building, the Masonic Building and others. Contact Charlotte Sellers at 812/ 522-3412 ext 240 for more information. Tour begins at 3pm at the library meeting room, 2nd & Walnut. Free

May 20

Bloomington: Bloomington Historic Preservation Commission and Monroe County Public Library welcome Nancy Hiller, kitchen designer and cabinetmaker. She will present a talk on designing cabinets for period inspired kitchens. The talk will include a brief history of kitchen cabinets, the basics of cabinet construction, and discussion of the kinds of details that make cabinets look as though they belong to one particular period or another. Hiller recently gave this presentation at the Traditional Building Show in Boston. Presentation will be in the library auditorium (303 E. Kirkwood) at 2pm. Contact Nancy Hiestand at 812/ 349-3507 for information. Free

Crown Point: The Crown Point Historic Preservation Commission presents a spring walking tour of the Sunny-side Historic District. The Sunny-side historic district was designated in 2005 and is one of three local historic district in Crown Point. Those wishing to participate in the walking tour will meet at the "Old Homestead" (227 S. Court St.) where they can see the restoration of the 1840s hall-and-parlor house. From there the participants can enjoy a trolley ride to Sunny-side, where the walking tour will begin. The tour will cover the history of Crown Point as well as the development and architecture of homes in the Sunny-side Historic District. Contact Tiffany Tolbert (219/ 938-2200) or Curt Graves (219/ 662-3239) for more information. Refreshments served. 2pm-4pm. Free

Evansville: Preservation Alliance of Evansville and the City of Evansville are hosting a tour of the Greyhound station. Gather at the Greyhound station, corner of Sycamore and N.W. 3rd Streets. The station and neighboring buildings are the centers of much interest and activity in our downtown. This architectural tour highlights the architectural gems and exciting renovations here. Reitz High School "Feel the History Class" will tour the bus station. Refreshments from Vanderburgh County Historical Society. Contact the

Department of Metropolitan Development at 812/ 436-7823 for more information. 2pm-3:30pm. Free

Evansville: Evansville's most noted Victorian jewel, the Reitz Home, will waive the usual admission charge on this day in observance of Historic Preservation Week in Evansville. The Reitz Home is at 224 S.E. 1st Street. Take advantage of this once a year free admission to see the nationally renowned house museum. 1pm-3:30pm. Free

Fort Wayne: Time Line Event at Old Fort Wayne (Spy Run Ave). A series of Revolutionary War, War of 1812, and Civil War reenactments. For details call 260/ 460-4763 or visit www.oldfortwayne.org. 11am-4pm.

May 23

Indianapolis: Indianapolis City Market. Come join staff members from the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology at the 1886 market building. See the recent renovations to the building and learn about historic preservation from the State Historic Preservation Office. Contact Amy Walker at 317/ 232-1647 for information. 10am-1:30pm. Free

May 24

Kokomo: The Howard County Historical Society., Howard County Preservation Committee, and Historic Landmarks Foundation of Indiana are hosting "National Register Historic Districts in Kokomo". Architectural historian Paul Diebold will be speaking about three different proposed historic districts in Kokomo. Event will be at the Elliot House, 1200 W. Sycamore, Kokomo at 7pm. Contact Cathy Wright at 260-563-4534 for more information. Free

Lebanon: The Lebanon Public Library's Heritage Center (104 E. Washington) is offering a Photograph Copy Clinic on each Thursday in May. The Heritage Center desires to copy photographs or historical documents of Lebanon or any place in Boone County, Indiana for the local history archives. The library is particularly interested in businesses, churches, parks and schools. Documents will be scanned while you wait. Contact the Library at 765-482-3460 ext 261 for more information. 9am-2pm. Free

May 26

Fort Wayne: South Side Farmers Market (3300 Warsaw St). Visit this 1926 Farmers market with wood-stoves and old-fashioned charm. The market is listed as a Local Historic District. Enjoy early season produce, annual flowers, perennials, and more. Contact Angie Quinn at 260/ 426-5117 for information. 7am-1pm. Free

May 27

Jasper: Annual gathering to celebrate the early settlers of Ireland, IN. Event will take place at the Shiloh Meeting House (4069 W. Shiloh Road). Dr., W. Paul Glezen, whose grandfather was the first doctor in Ireland, will speak on old medical practices. Dessert will be served, please bring your own drinks. For more information go to <http://irelandindiana.com/welcome.htm> or email Delbert Himself, Jr at junebug@fullnet.com. 1pm CST. Free

May 30

Fort Wayne: Celebrate the new Forest Park Boulevard Historic District—newly listed on the National Register of Historic Places and dedication of historic markers. Call 260/427-1127 for details. 2pm. Free

Indianapolis: Indianapolis City Market. Come join staff members from the Division of Historic Preservation and Archaeology at the 1886 market building. See the recent renovations to the building and learn about historic preservation from the State Historic Preservation Office. Contact Amy Walker at 317/ 232-1647 for information. 10am-1:30pm. Free

June 1

Auburn: The National Automotive and Truck Museum of the United States and Auburn Cord Duesenberg Museum are dedicating the National Historic Landmark Celebration at Gordon M. Buehrig Place. A variety of other events will be occurring to celebrate the designation. Contact 260/ 925-9100 for details. 8pm. Marker dedication is free